General Manager at the Courtyard Medford Airport Receives Top Honor for Service Marriott Recognizes Medford, Oregon Hotel's Won Choi for His Exceptional Performance

Medford, Oregon – June 24, 2016 – Discerning travelers know that, when it comes to booking a hotel, there are more considerations than the thread count. In addition to amenities and location, an exceptional property will offer service to match. And with the recipients of Marriott's most prestigious awards for 2016 recently announced, it is clear that the Courtyard Medford Airport falls firmly within that category of premier hotels.

The Marriott Awards of Excellence incorporate several categories like community service, diversity excellence, and excellence of culture. The most coveted and competitive of these is the J. Willard Marriott Award of Excellence, an honor awarded to only eight hotel associates from around the world.

Among those 2016 recipients is the Courtyard's own Mr. Won Choi, who serves as the property's general manager.

"Earning this award has been a true honor," Mr. Choi said. "My team and I have committed ourselves to creating an exceptional guest experience, and this reward reflects our hard work and innovation. I look forward to continuing this same level of service in the years to come."

The Marriott Awards of Excellence have recognized top-performing associates for the past 30 years, celebrating characteristics like achievement, character, dedication, effort and perseverance.

The J. Willard Marriott Award, however, is not the first recognition the property has earned. Further distinguishing it among hotels near Rogue Valley International - Medford Airport, have been its TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence and its Marriott Gold Award for service. Both of these accolades reflect the success of Mr. Choi and his team in creating a superlative stay for guests.

In addition to impeccable service, visitors to this Medford hotel enjoy a variety of comforts, like stylish guest rooms, free high-speed Internet access and close proximity to Medford area attractions like Southern Oregon's Wine Country. Such a combination of award-winning service and amenities translates to an attractive destination unparalleled by other hotels near Medford, Oregon and that can only be described as truly exceptional.
