Mereté Hotel Management Offers Short-Term Consulting Services

Now offering à la carte hotel management services including Sales and Marketing, Digital Services, Hotel Operations, Human Resources, and Accounting and Payroll.

Members of the Mereté Team

(Springfield, OR) To support our industry partners during the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and its impact on the hospitality industry, Mereté Hotel Management is offering its full suite of hotel management services for stand-alone and short-term contracting. Mereté is using its years of industry excellence and expertise to help partner with banks and hotel owner-operators in need of assistance during this challenging time.

With its many built-out and staffed departments, Mereté offers guidance in these essential areas of hotel management: Sales and Marketing, Digital Services, Hotel Operations, Human Resources, and Accounting and Payroll. Along with these areas of management, they also offer pre-opening and hotel development services.

“Offering access to short term hotel management services is an excellent way to help support the hotel industry specifically lenders and owner operators that may be juggling multiple assets that need support in response to the pandemic. It also provides Mereté a growth opportunity and an avenue to utilize our experienced staff that may otherwise be furloughed. It's a win-win-win!” said Terry Goldman, Vice President of Operations for Mereté Hotel Management.

The services offered cover everything from financial audits to market analysis, website audit and refresh, guest service training, payroll processing, talent acquisition, and much more. Hotels can hire Mereté for support with one specific area of management, pick several, or choose the fully built-out program for general management services. For a complete list of services provided, as well as an eBrochure, visit Mereté's website.
