Mereté Hotel Management Selects New Chief Financial Officer, Nigel Francisco

(Springfield, OR) Mereté Hotel Management has selected Nigel Francisco as its Chief Financial Officer.

Mr. Francisco previously served as CFO of Ninkasi Brewing for nine years and King Estate Winery for two before returning to Ninkasi to lead that organization for two years. Through eight years of service as a Commissioner of the Oregon Tourism Commission, Nigel gained an understanding of the priorities of the hospitality industry and the lodging sector, as well as tourism promotion agencies throughout the State of Oregon.

"We are excited to welcome Nigel to Mereté and the Executive team." Said Liz Dahlager, Executive Vice President of Mereté Hotel Management. "His background and experience are a valuable addition as Mereté continues to grow its hotel management portfolio."

Nigel Francisco brings a wealth of knowledge to Mereté from his experience in finance, accounting, and administration. Francisco will manage Mereté's accounting and financial activities including raising capital and supporting the company's strategic growth plans along with overseeing all financial and accounting services.
