The Opening of Medford's Newest Airport Hotel is a Highly Anticipated Addition to Mereté Hotel Management's Impressive Portfolio.

(Medford, OR) Mereté Hotel Management continues its commitment to growth and expansion of their portfolio with the opening of the new Springhill Suites by Marriott Medford Airport. The 131 all-suites hotel opened November 3rd, is managed by Mereté Hotel Management, and is owned by Navigators Hospitality, LLC. Ms. Shannon Johnson, with over 30 years' experience in the hospitality industry and recipient of Hotel Management Magazine's General Managers to Watch 2020, has been selected to be the General Manager of this hotel.

"This development is a welcomed addition to the Mereté portfolio and the Medford market, as the travel industry begins to stabilize and we see increased traffic coming through the Rogue Valley Airport." says Executive Vice President of Mereté Hotel Management, Liz Dahlager. Reg Breeze with Breeze Capital Management says, "We have had a long relationship with Mereté and our new Springhill Suites will be a great addition to the area near the Medford Airport."

This SpringHill Suites by Marriott Medford Airport is an all-suites upscale hotel with rooms twenty-five percent larger than average hotel suites and come trimmed with luxury furniture from well-known brand West Elm. This hotel also has a bar, evening food options available and complimentary shuttle service to and from Medford Airport. Additional amenities include a newly reimagined complimentary breakfast focused on quality and variety, an indoor pool, and a large fitness center.
